

STORY OF THE BIG FIGHT ROUND BY ROUND

Detailed Account of the Battle in San Francisco Last Night for the Light-Heavy-weight Championship How "Old Man" Fitz Battled with Sturdy New England Boxer for Twenty Rounds.

ROUND ONE.—They went to the center quickly and indulged in sparring. Gardner danced around lively and ducked a vicious left for the jaw. They came together without result, and Fitz missed a left swing for the jaw. He dodged another on the same line, and sent a straight left high on the chest.

Gardner was short with a right upper cut for the jaw. Both then missed lefts for the head, and Gardner received a stinging straight left to the jaw. Fitz followed this with another left to the jaw and a right to the stomach. Fitz sent Gardner's head back with a left hook on the jaw. Gardner then planted a straight to the face. Fitz blocked a hard left for the stomach as the bell rang.

ROUND TWO.—After considerable sparring both missed lefts for the body. Fitz got in a light to the head, and Gardner landed twice on the kidneys with rights. Gardner drove his right twice to the body and received a left to the body and a right to the jaw in return. Gardner sent his right to the body, and Fitz slipped to the floor as he backed from a right swing.

Broke Even on the Round. This round was comparatively even, the advantage, if any, being with Gardner. There was not much force to many of the blows landed.

ROUND THREE.—Gardner was short with a left for the body, and a moment later drove a hard right to the Cornishman's ribs. They then exchanged blows to the body. Fitz missed a left swing for the face, and was met with a straight right to the body. Gardner followed it with a right swing to the ribs and two rights to the kidneys. Gardner sent in left and right to the jaw. Fitz forced him to the ropes with a straight left to the jaw, sending Gardner against the ropes. Fitz then hooked a vicious right to the jaw, and Gardner went to the floor. He came up and Fitz planted several frightful lefts and rights to the face and body that sent the Lowell man to his corner, groggy.

Close Call for Gardner.

ROUND FOUR.—Fitz sent in a right to the jaw and they mixed it. Bob ducking and blocking cleverly. Fitz stood back and then tried left and right for the jaw, but was blocked. He repeated the attempt a moment later, but Gardner met him with a straight left to the jaw. Fitz then sent Gardner down for seven seconds with two straight lefts to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fitz was very cool. He nearly had Gardner out twice.

ROUND FIVE.—Fitz landed a left swing to the jaw and Gardner went down for the count of nine. Fitz chased him around the ring and had Gardner staggering. Fitz forced Gardner to the ropes with a left to the jaw and a right hook to the body. Fitz looked a bit tired. He put in a left to the body. They came to a mix-up, Gardner being desperate and rushing. He was bleeding from the nose. Fitz swung left and right to the face and forced Gardner back. He then landed a right and tried to create the impression that he was tired. Fitz had the crowd guessing as to whether he was shamming or actually tired.

Crowd Hisses the Fighters.

ROUND SIX.—Fitz missed a right swing for the head and backed away from Gardner. Fitz missed another left to the head, and then sent in a straight right to the head as Gardner was going away. Fitz took a couple of left jabs to the face in order to get in a right, but he was short. Fitz cleverly evaded several right and lefts for the body and they mixed it in a corner, fighting evenly. Both exchanged straight lefts to the face, and Gardner drove a straight right to the body.

The crowd hissed at the tameness of the fighting.

ROUND SEVEN.—Fitz rushed in and swung hard with left and right to the head. He fought fiercely in a mix-up. Fitz was hissed for holding on.

Both Are Very Tired.

Both men looked very tired at this stage. They got to close quarters, and both tried lefts and rights for the body, but the efforts were futile. The crowd found both men fighting tamely, with the crowd jeering and urging them on.

Fitz Shows Improvement.

Fitz improved again in this round and had the advantage.

ROUND TEN.—Fitz missed a fierce right hook for the head and Gardner was with with a right swing. Fitz backed away and contented himself with blocking Gardner's leads. Fitz jolled

Gardner with a left to the jaw, but Gardner retaliated with a hard right to the jaw. Fitz hooked his left to the face and they came together. Fitz broke it up with a left head to the stomach, and Gardner jabbed Fitz's mouth three times with left, drawing blood. Fitz crossed his left to the face. Gardner kept jabbing with his left to the mouth and tantalizing Bob. Fitz however, took the blows in good humor. They came together with considerable force at the close of the round, and Gardner slipped to his haunches. He was up quickly and went at once to his corner.

Fitz Again to the Good.

ROUND ELEVEN.—Fitz caught Gardner with a right to the stomach and then hooked him viciously with a left on the wind. Fitz fought hard, and Gardner's punches seemed to lack force. Fitz took the advantage of the round.

ROUND TWELVE.—Bob, as usual, backed away. They came together in a mix-up, but no damage was done. Gardner jabbed a left into Fitz's face and closed in as the latter tried a straight left for the jaw. The pace again slowed up and the crowd yelled at the contestants. Fitz shifted and brought a hard left swing to the jaw. He tried to follow with a right, but missed his mark.

Gardner Again to the Floor.

ROUND THIRTEEN.—Fitz missed a left swing for the jaw and received a straight left on the mouth. Gardner then poked Fitz in the stomach with a straight left and chased Fitz into a corner. They danced around the ring for fully a minute without a blow being landed. Gardner kept pegging away at Fitz, but the latter finally got out of harm's way. Finally Fitz brought his right to the body and a left to the nose. Gardner sent in two straight lefts to the face and a light left to the body, but there was little force to them. Just as the round closed Fitz swung a hard right to the jaw, sending Gardner to the floor. He was up within two seconds and showed no effects from the blow as he took his chair.

ROUND FOURTEEN.—Gardner was short with a straight left for the body. Fitz feinted with right and sent two lefts to the jaw. He followed it with a hard left hook to the jaw and a hard right to the body. Swinging fiercely he sent the Lowell man to the floor for five seconds. Fitz then missed a fearful right swing back and then tried left and right for the jaw, but was blocked. He repeated the attempt a moment later, but Gardner met him with a straight left to the jaw. Fitz then sent Gardner down for seven seconds with two straight lefts to the jaw. Gardner came up fighting wildly. Fitz was very cool. He nearly had Gardner out twice.

ROUND FIFTEEN.—Fitz swung with left and missed. Then they both went to a clinch. Emerging, Fitz missed a hard swing for the jaw and Gardner countered with a glancing blow to the jaw. Fitz drove his right to the body, and then shifted and landed a body and evaded counter. Fitz fought carefully, and made his blows count when he reached the Lowell man's anatomy. Fitz landed a left and right swing to the jaw and just missed another for the same place. Gardner put a straight swing for the jaw, and as they came together Gardner got in a straight left to the face.

ROUND SIXTEEN.—Gardner got in a light on Fitz's face and forced him to a corner. Fitz came back with a stinging straight left for the face. Fitz missed a left hook to the jaw and a right hook to the body. Fitz looked a bit tired. He put in a left to the body. They came to a mix-up, Gardner being desperate and rushing. He was bleeding from the nose. Fitz swung left and right to the face and forced Gardner back. He then landed a right and tried to create the impression that he was tired. Fitz had the crowd guessing as to whether he was shamming or actually tired.

Crowd Hisses the Fighters.

ROUND SEVEN.—Fitz missed a right swing for the head and backed away from Gardner. Fitz missed another left to the head, and then sent in a straight right to the head as Gardner was going away. Fitz took a couple of left jabs to the face in order to get in a right, but he was short. Fitz cleverly evaded several right and lefts for the body and they mixed it in a corner, fighting evenly. Both exchanged straight lefts to the face, and Gardner drove a straight right to the body.

The crowd hissed at the tameness of the fighting.

Both Are Very Tired.

Both men looked very tired at this stage. They got to close quarters, and both tried lefts and rights for the body, but the efforts were futile. The crowd found both men fighting tamely, with the crowd jeering and urging them on.

Fitz Shows Improvement.

Fitz improved again in this round and had the advantage.

CARLISLE, 28; NORTHWESTERN, 0 IT WITH MOWATT

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26.—"Kid" Mowatt, the lightning conductor of Chicago, Ill., was awarded the decision over "Kid" Carlisle, of Cleveland, O., in a ten-round bout before the Southern Athletic Club last night. The former outpointed his opponent from the start, and when the end came he had Broad almost down and out. The fight was one of the fastest bouts ever pulled off in this city.

From the fifth to the eighth round Mowatt had Broad at his mercy, and had it not been for the latter's remarkable stamina the fight would not have lasted half as long.

When the men tied the scratch in the eighth round Broad appeared weak and groggy and a punch or two would have counted him out, but Mowatt was unequal to the occasion.

The crowd that saw the game was unique. Drawn from territory contiguous to Northwestern, the spectators wore the colors of the popular Indians and rooted equally hard for Uncle Sam's wards and the home players.

THREE FIGHTS ON CARD IN THE WEST TO-NIGHT.

Jack Root Dons Mitts for First Time Since Gardner Beat Him.

Three fights will be contested in the West to-night. Jack Root, of Chicago, and Jim Flynn, of Pueblo, will come together in a twenty-round bout at Cripple Creek, Col.

This will be Root's first fight since he was beaten by George Gardner for the light heavyweight championship last round bout before the Tammany A. C. July.

REFEREE GRANEY DISAPPOINTED.

By Referee Eddie Granev.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 26.—"The fight was a disappointment to me, as I thought the men would furnish a fierce battle. Fitz made a good fight, nevertheless, as he fought a much younger man than he was by many years." "Gardner surprised me by his poor showing. He had no force to his blows. If he had, he might have beaten Fitzsimmons, as he landed enough times on the old man to whip a dozen fighters. Fitzsimmons clearly showed in this fight that he is not the same wonderful puncher he was in his last fight with Jeffries. I think that taking off so much weight took all the force out of his blows."

"YOUNG CORBETT" TIPPED WINNER.

The Evening World was the only paper to tip Fitzsimmons as a sure winner of last night's contest. Its special correspondent on the big battle, "Young Corbett," the world's feather-weight champion, stated positively in yesterday's Evening World that Fitz was sure to defeat Gardner.

FITZ SAYS BAD HANDS PREVENTED KNOCK-OUT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—The disappointing showing made by Robert Fitzsimmons in his victory over George Gardner last night is explained by Fitz in a statement in which he says that he broke both his hands in the course of the fight. Otherwise, he says, he could have put Gardner out at will.

According to Fitzsimmons, he broke two bones, weak from an old injury, in his right hand early in the fight. In the thirteenth round, he says, he broke his left hand. After that he was out of the contest so far as inflicting punishment was concerned, and had to content himself with blocking and stalling off the rushes of his young opponent.

The explanation of Fitzsimmons is generally credited. He was slower than he had ever been before in a fight in this country, and the way he used his hands during the last half of the fight showed that there was something wrong.
